TRO

1 (In open court)

2 THE COURT: Ms. Dougherty.

3 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

5 MS. DOUGHERTY: Good afternoon, your Honor.

6 MR. TAYLOR: Ben Taylor.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Taylor, all right. Good afternoon.

8 Ms. Golick.

9 MS. GOLICK: Yes. Good afternoon.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Meier.

11 MR. MEIER: Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

13 Mr. Rosinus.

14 MR. ROSINUS: Good afternoon, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Ms. Yee.

16 MS. YEE: Good afternoon.

17 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

18 As you know, I have an application from the plaintiffs
19 for a temporary restraining order and eventually a preliminary
20 injunction. I have not yet received any papers in opposition
21 from the defendants, right? It's plural, state/city?

22 MR. MEIER: That's right.

23 THE COURT: Right. From the defendants I have not yet
24 received any papers. So I have only one side that I've heard 25 from.

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 Obviously, with respect to a preliminary injunction,
2 there's usually some amount of discovery and a hearing and all
3 of that.

4 The real issue for today is a temporary restraining
5 order. And while I definitely want to hear from the 6 plaintiffs, I'd rather start with the defendants because at 7 least the plaintiffs have had a chance to put in an extensive
8 brief and a declaration.

9 So I will hear from you more, but I might as well
10 start with the defendants who've had a few days now, because of 11 my schedule, to at least absorb what you've written. So your 12 thoughts with respect to a temporary restraining order. Of 13 course you oppose one, but, go ahead.

14 MR. MEIER: Well, thank you, your Honor. And I have
15 to begin by apologizing to the Court and to everyone, because I
16 am here in the stead of my colleague, Robert Kraft, who is lead
17 counsel on this case.

18 Mr. Kraft is particularly knowledgeable and
19 experienced in these subject matters, and I am here not to 20 delay these matters, but, rather, in the spirit of filling in 21 for him so that we can move this proceeding along and move on 22 to the next thing.

23 With that being said, with an eye towards scheduling,
24 I will be asking that Mr. Kraft, who will not be returning to 25 the office until Tuesday of next week, be given appropriate

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 amount of time to prepare opposition papers on the preliminary
2 injunction.

3 THE COURT: I'm not worried about preliminary
4 injunction. I'm putting that aside right now. Of course he'll
5 have the opportunity to prepare papers. There also may need to 6 be discovery; there also may need to be a hearing.

7 I'm worried today about a TRO. And I'm, of course,
8 going to ask the plaintiffs to justify why we need a TRO, and
9 what relief they want in that TRO, etc.

10 So I thought you might want to start out addressing.
11 That. I need to hear from you on the TRO.

12 MR. MEIER: I am prepared to speak on that.

13 THE COURT: Good. Because that's been definitely
14 pending several days.

15 MR. MEIER: Didn't mean to indicate otherwise.

16 THE COURT: The PI we can talk about at the end of the 17 conference. Let's focus on the TRO.

18 MR. MEIER: And, again, I'm here from the State
19 Attorney General's Office, and I represent the Department of 20 Health and the Office of Temporary Disability Assistance.

21 And I think what's notable about the complaint, about
22 all the papers that I reviewed, including the declarations that
23 plaintiffs have submitted and the memorandum of law is that I
24 don't see where the state defendants are alleged to have 25 violated federal law. To the contrary.

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 THE COURT: One second.

2 MR. MEIER: What is alleged --

3 THE COURT: Wait, wait. Give me a minute. I have a
4 problem. Here it is. I'm sorry.

5 You don't see how the plaintiffs have alleged that the 6 state law has been violated?

7 MR. MEIER: That federal law has been violated by the 8 state defendants.

9 THE COURT: Thank you. Federal law by the state
10 defendant.

11 MR. MEIER: That's right, your Honor.

12 My understanding of the allegation, based on what's
13 claimed in the complaint, is that they allege that the city
14 agency has been relying on a, quote, unreasonable
15 interpretation of state regulations that the plaintiffs concede
16 are in compliance with your Honor's decision in Mayer v. Wing.

17 And their allegation is that virtually every time
18 someone says their benefits have been wrongly reduced, contrary
19 to Mayer v. Wing embodied by this regulation, they go to an 20 OTDA fair hearing and they prevail.

21 This case is basically then not an allegation that the 22 state has done anything wrong; they are sort of a Trojan horse
23 here involving what they call the change to the regulation.
24 And I'd just like to briefly explain that the change in the 25 regulation is not a -- it's not in any way an alteration of the

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 regulation that would be contrary to your Honor's ruling in
2 Mayer v. Wing.

3 THE COURT: Well, it's a change. What's the change?

4 MR. MEIER: I can explain that.

5 The change is that previously someone who required
6 24-hour care fit the definition of continuous personal
7 services. And so their authorizations and reauthorizations to 8 receive the care that they are getting had to be approved by 9 the local medical director.

10 Under the change, someone who --

11 THE COURT: Is this October 4, 2011?

12 MR. MEIER: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. MEIER: Thank you.

15 The City Council -- I believe that is correct, your
16 Honor.

17 The change is now someone who receives more than 16
18 hours a day, as opposed to 24-hour around-the-clock, also meets
19 the definition of continuous care; and, thus, their 20 authorizations and reauthorizations also have to be looked at 21 by the local medical director.

22 So this change means that local medical directors, and 23 I believe --

24 THE COURT: Did you say you were directors, local 25 medical directors?

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 MR. MEIER: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Oh, you are. Okay. I just want to make
3 sure I heard the third word right.

4 MR. MEIER: I think they are also called local
5 professional directors.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. MEIER: This is why, again, I am apologizing for 8 filling in for Mr. Kraft, your Honor, I'm sorry.

9 MR. ROSINUS: Your Honor, the local medical directors
10 are --

11 THE COURT: Now I can't hear your word. Local medical 12 directors.

13 MR. ROSINUS: Directors are, as I understand
14 structure, beneath the local professional directors. They sort
15 of lead the unit. And the LPDs lead the unit; the LMDs are 16 beneath them.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

18 MR. MEIER: So my understanding of what's happened is 19 pursuant to the change in the regulation -- and this is 20 consistent with the allegations -- this is, in fact, the 21 allegation that is being made in this case -- is after the 22 change in regulations, the local medical directors are looking 23 at more cases both in terms of authorizations and 24 reauthorizations. And they report that anecdotally, the 25 plaintiffs do, that they are seeing a number of

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 reauthorizations being denied for continuous care services
2 based on that.

3           These three plaintiffs that they've identified are all
4 people who would be unaffected by the change, because they I
5 think -- and anyone correct me if I'm wrong -- they were
6 already receiving 24-hour care before; it had nothing to do
7 with the 16-hour. The review of their cases would have been 8 the same under the statute prior to or after the regulatory 9 change.

10           And here, assuming that the allegations in the 11 complaint are true, when these three plaintiffs have their 12 hearings -- I believe one has already had a fair hearing and
13 prevailed -- their allegation is that OTDA and the Department
14 of Health continue to follow Mayer v. Wing, and virtually all
15 people who say that they have wrongly lost benefits prevail at 16 fair hearings.

17           THE COURT: But do they continue to get benefits
18 during the interim?

19           MR. MEIER: They do.

20           THE COURT: The same level?

21           MR. MEIER: They do, as long as they apply for a
22 hearing within a certain amount of time or otherwise approved,
23 I believe. And I think that all these three plaintiffs are 24 continuing to receive the same services.

25           THE COURT: So no decrease in benefits.

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 MR. MEIER: That's right, your Honor. One has already
2 received their fair hearing and prevailed.

3 THE COURT: I understand that. But no decrease in the 4 interim.

5 MR. MEIER: That's right.

6 And the other two have fair hearings pending, and have
7 what's called care continuing or the same level of benefits is 8 provided throughout.

9 So thus, our argument is twofold: A, we have not been
10 accused of any wrongdoing, so it's a who am I/why am I hear
11 argument. And, B, these three plaintiffs have not established
12 that they will be irreparably harmed but for the issuance of a
13 TRO and, thus, we object to the TRO.

14 MR. ROSINUS: May I speak briefly on behalf of the 15 city, your Honor?

16 THE COURT: On behalf of the city.

17 MR. ROSINUS: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 MR. ROSINUS: I'm for Commissioner Doar, your Honor.

20 I just wanted to agree with the state defendant also.
21 And none of these defendants has been irreparably harmed.

22 THE COURT: None of these plaintiffs.

23 MR. ROSINUS: None of these plaintiffs. And there are 24 only three plaintiffs before the Court. There's no class
25 certification yet, of course, your Honor.

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 THE COURT: Of course.

2 MR. ROSINUS: And there's no motion yet; although the
3 plaintiffs have written --

4 THE COURT: I know. It's a putative class. But right
5 now we have Mr. Strouchler, Ms. Campos, and Ms. Rokaw.

6 MR. ROSINUS: That's right, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. ROSINUS: And so with respect to the TRO that 9 plaintiffs are seeking, it's, in our view, vastly overbroad, in 10 light of the fact that there are only three named plaintiffs in 11 this case right now.

12 The plaintiffs are requesting that the city be
13 enjoined from reducing or terminating split-shift home care
14 services to all medicaid recipients currently receiving these 15 services. I don't see how they can ask for this when there's 16 no class, when indeed the only plaintiffs --

17 THE COURT: Then you're saying there could never be a
18 TRO or a preliminary injunction prior to class certification in 19 any kind of class. There's always going to be class
20 representatives, three, four, two, or five, or something, in a
21 putative class; and sometimes those cases start with the 22 request for a preliminary injunction or a temporary restraining
23 order. They never certify that fast. So it's always
24 representative plaintiffs. But they do have to be injured.

25 Now, if your real argument -- probably what Mr. Meier

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 said -- is that if these three haven't suffered any harm and
2 aren't likely to do so because their benefits are not reduced
3 during the period between the notification of reduction and the 4 fair hearing, why would we have to have a TRO at all? Why not
5 just get to the preliminary injunction and have the hearing and 6 decide what to do.

7 MR. ROSINUS: Well, yes, your Honor, that's our
8 secondary argument, I suppose, and maybe our primary argument
9 now that these three individuals have not had their benefits
10 reduced and --

11 THE COURT: In any way. No cutback at all.

12 MR. ROSINUS: That's my understanding. Certainly 13 right now, your Honor, they do not have any cutback; they still 14 receive so-called split-shift care, which is --

15 THE COURT: Right. I remember split-shift.

16 MR. ROSINUS: Two 12-hour shifts. So yes, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Well, it's a start.

18 Ms. Dougherty.

19 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes, your Honor. You're going to 20 lead.

21 THE COURT: I know Ms. Salzman wanted to be here.

22 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes. Ms. Salzman --

23 THE COURT: We couldn't help it. I was on the bench
24 till 8 o'clock last night. It was awful.

25 So let's first answer -- first we'll ask you to answer

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 the state's argument that they are not even sure why they are
2 here at all, that their change in regulation in October of 2011
3 doesn't do anything that harms your class. But when you get
4 past that argument, how about the fact that there's no need for
5 a TRO, because nobody's benefits are being reduced yet.

6 In other words, they have the opportunity for a fair
7 hearing; they go to the hearing. I suppose if they lost at the 8 hearing and the cut actually occurred, you'd have a different
9 argument. But we might be able to get to the PI soon enough, I
10 don't know. Those are the two things I'd like you to address.

11 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes. Okay.

12 The first, your Honor, on the regulation that changed
13 in October, we do agree with the state that according to the 14 state, the change should not have had any substantial effect.
15 There were several changes, one that went -- it did include 16
16 hours; the other was that there was a change in some language
17 from unscheduled needs, does someone have unscheduled needs, to 18 can needs be predicted; predictable needs.

19 This change, for whatever reason, has resulted in an
20 across-the-board, we believe, change by the city to the cut.

21 THE COURT: Right. But I was sticking with the state.

22 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes. One of the reasons that the city
23 is using, is many of these clients, including these three 24 clients, need turning and positioning. They are bed-bound and 25 need turning and positioning.

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 That is not in the regulation.

2 The city, since October, has determined that because
3 it's not in that new regulation --

4 THE COURT: Was it in the old one?

5 MS. DOUGHERTY: It was not.

6 But the city has now taken the position that since it
7 is a new regulation, that they do not have to provide nighttime
8 turning and positioning.

9 THE COURT: I understand.

10 MS. DOUGHERTY: That's what we are seeking, the state,
11 your Honor, has -- yes, if you get to a fair hearing, they
12 will -- most of these clients are winning. We reviewed --
13 which, by means by the city, is doing something wrong.

14 THE COURT: I'm trying to stick with the state, and 15 you keep sliding to the city, not surprisingly.

16 Why are you suing the state?

17 MS. DOUGHERTY: We're not asking for a TRO against the 18 state.

19 THE COURT: Oh. Okay. Good.

20 So you just won; there's not going to be a TRO issued
21 against the state.

22 But why is the state a defendant at all?

23 MS. DOUGHERTY: Because of this regulation. This
24 regulation, if it is that there's no turning and positioning
25 any longer --

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 THE COURT: You keep saying "any longer." I asked you
2 whether the earlier regulation had language about that; you
3 said no.

4 MS. DOUGHERTY: No.

5 THE COURT: So there's no change.

6 MS. DOUGHERTY: But, your Honor, the earlier
7 regulation in practice and policy --

8 THE COURT: That's different. Practice and policy is 9 the city.

10 MS. DOUGHERTY: But practice and policy with the state
11 also, your Honor. We have a fair hearing that was recently
12 determined that we -- it's not in our papers, we just got it
13 two days ago, where the ALJ upheld a cut in services based on a
14 mistake being made. And the mistake being made was not 15 complying with this regulation.

16 THE COURT: In what way didn't it comply with the 17 regulation?

18 MS. DOUGHERTY: It didn't comply because the
19 regulation -- the fair hearing -- the city said that toileting
20 could be predicted, and nothing was any longer -- there's also 21 a definition with sum in total.

22 They have said that the previous was a mistake; that 23 turning and positioning, that toileting, if you can even
24 wiggle, and that's all you can do, that that isn't total
25 assistance with toileting, and that toileting can be predicted.

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1           The state has now upheld this very irrational
2       decision, where before, your Honor, the old regulation didn't
3       have turning and positioning, but it was always assessed for --
4       and both the city and the state, even though the reg. was
5       there, in practice, always allowed for turning and positioning.

6           If that has now changed and the state is now upholding
7       the turning and positioning is no longer a task, because it's 8       not in the reg., and we can only tell from this one fair
9       hearing decision --

10          THE COURT: Right.

11          MS. DOUGHERTY: -- and if they are allowing, they are 12       not directing the city that they are wrong, they are not giving
13       some direction saying, Look, you've got this wrong, this isn't 14       what our policy is, both of those things and not directing
15       their local district and in sometimes upholding it where now
16       this person that we only have this fair hearing decision --

17          THE COURT: What's the title or violation of law that 18       the state has committed?

19          MS. DOUGHERTY: The violation is the Medicaid Act
20       under the Comparability Act, the ADA. Amount, duration, and 21       scope, they are not providing the same amount, duration, and 22       scope in services. It is also under amount, duration, and
23       scope to reasonably achieve the purpose. All of those things
24       violate --

25          THE COURT: Okay.

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 MS. DOUGHERTY: -- federal law.

2 THE COURT: All right. I suppose that's enough for
3 tonight. We weren't here on a motion to dismiss.

4 MS. DOUGHERTY: No.

5 THE COURT: But I was curious why the state is a
6 defendant at all.

7 But the good news is they are not seeking a TRO --

8 MS. DOUGHERTY: We are not seeking a TRO from them,
9 your Honor.

10 THE COURT: -- as to the state; so I guess for 11 tonight, anyway, Mr. Meier, you have nothing to worry about.

12 As we've talked about the preliminary injunction
13 hearing, by then you'll have responded. You may have responded
14 with a motion to dismiss as opposed to an answer, I don't know.
15 At least you have some explanation today on the record of the 16 theory of holding the state in. So you'll decide how to answer
17 that.

18 I think I just extended your time to answer till when?

19 MR. MEIER: Actually, that application was made by the 20 city, your Honor. I was going to make my own application
21 today.

22 THE COURT: What did the city get?

23 MR. ROSINUS: I got 30 days, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Till what? What date?

25 MR. ROSINUS: It was June 21st. I think June 20th or

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 21st.

2 THE COURT: Did you want the same date?

3 MR. MEIER: The thing with that, your Honor, as I
4 indicated, I'm filling in for Mr. Kraft --

5 THE COURT: I heard that.

6 MR. MEIER: -- who's not coming in till Tuesday. So
7 the things on Mr. Kraft's plate when he comes back will be the
8 preliminary injunction motion, their expedited discovery
9 requests, and answering the complaint. And I don't see why
10 there's a need to answer while the preliminary injunction is --

11 THE COURT: Well, because if he answers with a motion
12 to dismiss, the sooner we know that, the better. Here we are 13 planning expedited discovery and a preliminary injunction
14 hearing and everything else. Is the state here or not here.
15 So if it's going to be a motion to dismiss, the earlier the 16 better.

17 I realize if he's going to just answer, it's not so
18 urgent. Answers are very predictable; they usually say denied,
19 denied, denied.

20 So I know what they are going to say. But a motion to 21 dismiss is different. And you do have more information than 22 you had walking in, I think, on the theory. So he'll review
23 that.

24 All right. Anyway, let's get to the TRO.

25 So now let's talk about the city.

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1           So I understand why the city is here. But they say
2 none of the three representative plaintiffs have actually
3 suffered any cut in service, not by an hour.

4           MS. DOUGHERTY: They have not. The three plaintiffs
5 that we have brought all had aid to continue because they all
6 got to attorneys, they all requested the hearing on time. But
7 that doesn't mean they weren't harmed, your Honor.

8           They have suffered, you know, the threat of this harm
9 in that they had previously -- Ms. Rokaw had previously won a
10 fair hearing on split shift on the very issue that they turned 11 around that her toileting needs were unscheduled.

12          THE COURT: All right. But I don't think that the 13 threat hanging over her is really going to be sufficient to 14 issue some kind of a broad temporary restraining order. The 15 fact is there hasn't been an hour's loss of help.

16          MS. DOUGHERTY: Of these three.

17          THE COURT: I understand. They are your named
18 plaintiffs.

19          MS. DOUGHERTY: But, your Honor, we believe that what
20 has happened -- and that's what the declarations with the -- I
21 don't know, it's about 20-odd individuals in those 22 declarations, Ms. Terry, which is in the declaration of 23 Mr. Jeffrey, she lost; she had actually asked for aid to 24 continue timely. It was -- the state did not provide it; it
25 was an administrative error. And for two weeks, Ms. Terry went

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 without turning, positioning, or diaper change, and suffered
2 harm.

3 In addition, we now have -- as I said, this fair
4 hearing, where we know this person has probably lost care
5 because this was upheld in December. In addition, your Honor,
6 many people we know -- there's only about 1,000 of these
7 individuals; so we don't think that this TRO between now and 8 the time of a preliminary injunction hearing will not be of 9 great difficulty for the city. And for some --

10 THE COURT: What are you seeking?

11 MS. DOUGHERTY: We are simply seeking that the -- for 12 those people currently receiving 24-hour services, that they
13 not be terminated or reduced between now and the time of the 14 hearing.

15 THE COURT: That's it.

16 MS. DOUGHERTY: That is it. As well as, your Honor --
17 but this is -- I should -- that's the stay.

18 We are also asking for -- that the city provide 19 between those individuals that were reduced or terminated from 20 the time of the change in the break, October 4th, that we 21 receive contact information from them and the notice, so that
22 we may follow up with those individuals. We are seeking a
23 class certification, and that they provide that information to 24 us.

25 THE COURT: All right. But that's really a request

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 for expedited discovery, not really a TRO, to me. There's a
2 difference. That's a request for discovery.

3 All right. So back to the TRO.

4 The TRO is only between 1,000 and 1500 people who now
5 receive 24-hour care.

6 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes.

7 THE COURT: That's all it is?

8 MS. DOUGHERTY: That's all it is, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: For those 1,000 or 1500, the TRO ask that
10 they not have a reduction in care or termination until the PI
11 hearing.

12 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Rosinus, that doesn't sound as 14 broad as you made it sound. You said you were asking for 15 terribly broad relief. Is that terribly broad that they
16 shouldn't actually lose an hour of care until this Court can 17 review the situation?

18 MR. ROSINUS: I think the concern, your Honor, is that 19 if HRA can't reduce even people who, for instance, have 20 improvements, material improvements in their condition, then
21 that's too broad of an injunction. We should be able to 22 continue at least to reduce services for people who don't have
23 a medical need, which is to say if we can document that there
24 has been --

25 THE COURT: Right. But you are defining it. That's

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 the whole point, as to how you define it. If you suddenly
2 decided that turning and positioning is not a medical need, and
3 toileting is not a medical need, if it can be scheduled every
4 two hours, then that's exactly what the lawsuit is about.

5 If somebody is getting this care because, I don't know
6 what, they had an auto accident last week, and they're going to
7 get better in six weeks, there wouldn't be really any objection
8 to stopping it in the ordinary course; it would have been
9 stopped before this change and after this change. They are not 10 talking about that. That must be a minuscule percentage of 11 these 1,000 to 1500.

12 Most of these people, I gather, don't get better,
13 frankly. They are permanently, let's say, in the condition
14 they are in. It must be a very small group who are 15 temporarily, shall we say, on 24-hour care and get better.
16 That's my guess.

17 MR. ROSINUS: Well, your Honor, that may be the case.

18 I think that two things --

19 THE COURT: And if that's the case, then maybe you can
20 negotiate with Ms. Dougherty to come up with language that 21 would be acceptable to the city so that there isn't an
22 injunction that you can't live with. It may be that this can
23 be negotiated; that it's for that small group where essentially
24 their condition remains the same, but the only reason a change
25 would be made is because of the new application of the amended

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 regulation that they fear will lead to change, such as this
2 turning and positioning question, scheduled toileting, etc.

3 If they want you to hold off on that till we can have
4 a PI hearing, you're really better off negotiating language
5 that works for both sides, because you could carve out the
6 people who really get better as opposed to are redefined. You
7 see what I'm saying, Ms. Dougherty? Redefined is different
8 from actually getting better. It's got to be a very small
9 subset, as I say, who get better.

10 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes. We believe that they're --
11 although they've used that terminology, "get better," that that 12 is not what is occurring.

13 THE COURT: True. But there must be a few.

14 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes. If someone had an auto accident
15 and then three months from now --

16 THE COURT: Exactly.

17 MS. DOUGHERTY: But again, your Honor, we think that
18 this -- as is in the declarations, there are people six to 100,
19 none of them were getting better.

20 THE COURT: No, I understand.

21 So that's why I'm saying, one suggestion is you take 22 care of the overbreadth problem that Mr. Rosinus poses when he
23 said that would stop us even from taking care of people who get
24 better, taking them off the 24-hour care. That can be carved
25 out with some lawyering. Okay.

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 MS. DOUGHERTY: Right. We're more than willing to
2 work with them on language if they believe they can carve that
3 out.

4 THE COURT: I believe you can carve it out.

5 So what else is overbroad about it, Mr. Rosinus?

6 MR. ROSINUS: Well, I think, your Honor, I mean that's 7 the main overbreadth problem. I also think it's important to 8 keep in mind that there are two problems that plaintiffs are 9 posing with what the LMDs are doing.

10 One is this change in the regulation from saying that 11 people whose needs can't be scheduled get split shift, to 12 saying people whose needs can't be predicted.

13 Returning to what we were talking about earlier, in 14 none of the three named plaintiffs' cases, as far as I can
15 tell, do they allege that that regulation has been implemented
16 in that way, in such a way that the previous language would
17 have been -- would have made a difference in the LMDs'
18 determination versus --

19 THE COURT: I understand that as to the three, but 20 what Ms. Dougherty wants me to focus on are the 20 or so that 21 are in the declarations. I really haven't had a chance to 22 focus on that group, and maybe you haven't either. But she
23 said if I really looked at those, there is that imminent risk.

24 MR. ROSINUS: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: And I always feel the status quo should be

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 maintained probably voluntarily. Best to negotiate and never
2 have a court impose it on you. It's a short amount of time. I
3 want to get to the PI hearing as soon as I can. For those
4 couple months I don't see that it's going to hurt the city very
5 much; I don't think there's money at stake. I don't think they
6 are really going to cut anybody back in that time.

7 Mr. Meier started out by saying nobody really gets cut
8 back if they promptly ask for a fair hearing. They do it
9 within a certain amount of time; they get the fair hearing.
10 Likely they win; but if they don't, they can appeal, this and 11 that.

12 It's not much of a burden either. It wouldn't burden
13 the city very much to say we'll work this out; we will hold off
14 on terminating anybody or reducing anybody till you, the Court,
15 can hold a PI hearing and decide what to do.

16 MR. ROSINUS: We can certainly consider -- if your
17 Honor would like us to talk with the plaintiffs about language,
18 we can consider that.

19 THE COURT: I think that would be the best result of 20 tonight's hearing. See if you can negotiate a limited TRO that
21 protects this relatively limited group, between 1,000 and 1500
22 people, who are chronically in a condition, whatever it is.
23 But they shouldn't be terminated or reduced in care while we're
24 waiting for the PI hearing. Short period of time.

25 So maybe we should turn to see -- since I'm asking you

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 to negotiate, maybe I should tell you how fast I can get to a
2 PI hearing.

3 So what would it take? What kind of expedited
4 discovery would you need, Ms. Dougherty, to be ready for a
5 hearing?

6 MS. DOUGHERTY: We have already sent the defendants a
7 list of what we were looking for in expedited discovery. We
8 were looking for 30 -- we were looking for some very small
9 documents, some depositions of the LMDs, and we were thinking
10 that we could be in a preliminary injunction hearing in 30 --
11 around 30 days.

12 THE COURT: What about the defendants? Now I have to 13 say defendants. How long would it take for you folks to be
14 ready for a PI hearing? They would probably want to depose --
15 maybe depose or at least ask questions of or get records from 16 some of these three plaintiffs or even the 20 in the 17 declarations who are described -- have you produced any records
18 to them yet about these people?

19 MS. DOUGHERTY: Your Honor, in what we've submitted to 20 the Court, the records are attached as exhibits. So if there
21 is additional documents -- they are within the city records.
22 But if there are additional documents that we have, certainly
23 we could turn them over.

24 One of the questions we have for the defendants is
25 the -- it seemed to be in these hearings that LMD said there

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 was a special project that they were working on to reduce these
2 cases, and that's what we're interested in. They said that
3 they were working weekends; that they had gotten an email to
4 reduce all of these 24-hour cases. And that came up in
5 hearings. And certainly that is some of what we want to take
6 depositions about.

7 THE COURT: Let me return to my question.

8 How long would it take the defendants, do you think,
9 to be ready for a preliminary injunction hearing in fairness?
10 How much discovery would you need and how long do you think it
11 would take?

12 MR. MEIER: I think that, your Honor, that, again,
13 as -- I would say about a month to five weeks from this coming
14 Tuesday for the hearing.

15 But, your Honor, of course, in terms of the discovery
16 that they are demanding from us, I can't see how they could 17 characterize it as small. They literally ask for every single 18 document relating to regulatory change. I mean we're talking
19 about a state organization that has changed the regulations.
20 In terms of paper, it's a monstrous request. And to have that 21 on an expedited schedule is needless.

22 THE COURT: Maybe they don't need that and can
23 negotiate with you as to what they need to support the 24 preliminary injunction request. They may not need right now
25 every piece of paper relating to the change in regulation,

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 regulatory language. Let them talk to you about that.

2 MR. MEIER: Then assuming that we will negotiate these
3 demands, then I would say that five weeks -- did I say five
4 weeks from this coming Tuesday -- would be a good return date
5 for us.

6 MR. ROSINUS: Your Honor, from the city's point of 7 view, even their first request, which is asking us to notify
8 basically potential class members, people who have had their
9 services reduced since October 4th, 2011, which is the date the 10 regulation changed --

11 THE COURT: Who've had their services reduced or 12 gotten the notice? Which was it?

13 MR. ROSINUS: Sorry. Yes.

14 THE COURT: Received a notice.

15 MR. ROSINUS: Received a notice of reduction or 16 termination.

17 THE COURT: That's right.

18 MR. ROSINUS: The database that we have is not the 19 most modern. We have to do a good deal of searching by hand.
20 And that particular request could take us as many as 30 days.
21 I know that plaintiffs would like to have time to review after 22 that.

23 So I think I would just respectfully submit that that
24 time frame be considered in how long it would take before
25 having a PI hearing. That might mean maybe a little bit more

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 than five weeks, maybe six or seven.

2 THE COURT: As long as you can negotiate the TRO, I'm
3 not against it, particularly because I'm starting a six-week
4 trial on Monday. So my time to have a real fair hearing may be
5 two days' worth, I don't know what we'd need. You know, a PI
6 hearing can be like a trial. So for me to set aside two or
7 three days, I really have to wait till my six-week trial ends
8 anyway.

9 MS. DOUGHERTY: Your Honor, one concern, of course, is 10 those people between -- who did not get to lawyers and who have
11 not had a fair hearing and won, so those people between October
12 and now who have lost their hearing, if there was a way to 13 identify those who have actually lost their care --

14 THE COURT: Well, he said he was going to try to do
15 that, that's why he asked for more time.

16 MS. DOUGHERTY: Okay.

17 THE COURT: So it really turns on being able to 18 negotiate kind of a standstill for that, I still say, short
19 period six, seven weeks is a short period, so that nobody
20 actually suffers --

21 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes.

22 THE COURT: -- a loss of care during the interim
23 weeks. I still think it's not asking a lot of the city. It's 24 a small group. These are elderly people. I don't want to put
25 anybody at risk. You really shouldn't want to either for a

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 short period of time.

2 So let me look at the calendar and suggest a potential
3 date, although I think I have another trial scheduled, but such 4 is life.

5 So we've been talking July. How about the week of
6 July 9th? That's the good week. I start a trial again on July
7 16th supposedly. So how about the week of July 9th for a
8 hearing? You think it would be a two-day hearing? Would that 9 be right?

10 MS. DOUGHERTY: Two or three.

11 THE COURT: There's no way to really know.

12 MS. DOUGHERTY: The last hearing we did that was 13 similar to this took us, I think, three days, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: I'm just thinking. Sixteen years ago I'm 15 sure I worked faster than -- I have slowed down significantly
16 in 16 years. You, of course, haven't changed at all. But that 17 is not true for me.

18 So, in any event, let's say Wednesday and Thursday of 19 that week, the 11th and 12th of July.

20 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 Two-day PI hearing.

23 Now, I do need submissions. Obviously, the city and 24 state want to respond to the papers they receive, putting aside
25 the answer, motion to dismiss, whatever it's going to be,

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 you'll want to respond to these papers, and I'll have want to
2 have read them before the PI hearing. And the plaintiff may
3 want to supplement its papers depending on the discovery it
4 receives. So we need to think about a schedule for that.

5 If the hearing is July 11th, can the defendants get at 6 least their initial response in by June 18, and any reply
7 papers where you could add to what you've already done,
8 Ms. Dougherty, by June 25th?

9 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 Let me make a note of what I'm doing here. That would 12 start at 10 o'clock.

13 MS. DOUGHERTY: Ten o'clock, your Honor?

14 Your Honor, we also had this week sent our premotion
15 letter on class certification. We wanted to know how to 16 schedule -- we need to schedule that.

17 THE COURT: I don't think realistically we can get to 18 that while we're doing this. Which is more important, a PI
19 hearing? There's only so much I can do and you can do and the 20 defendants can do.

21 MS. DOUGHERTY: Certainly the injunction hearing, your
22 Honor.

23 THE COURT: Is more important. Is it?

24 MS. DOUGHERTY: Let me just ask my co-counsel, but,
25 yes, I believe so.

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 Yes, your Honor, obviously.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MS. GOLICK: Excuse me.

4 We're ready to move for class certification.

5 THE COURT: Without this discovery that you've asked
6 for?

7 MS. GOLICK: We have at least 60 individuals who we've
8 identified already, so the discovery --

9 THE COURT: Well, they may challenge numerosity. I
10 mean 60 is just a little over 40, but you will learn about more
11 as you get this discovery.

12 I don't think realistically I could handle it anyway,
13 so why don't we put that off a little bit, because I'm going to 14 schedule another conference anyway, in case your negotiations
15 break down on either the expedited discovery or a TRO. So I
16 think we can think about that. Why don't you propose a
17 schedule.

18 MS. DOUGHERTY: Okay. Thank you, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: So let me schedule another conference.
20 But first, one more thing to write.

21 Okay. Now, you're going to try to do some
22 negotiating. Maybe I should -- I know what I'm thinking, but I
23 have to look at this calendar.

24 I could see you Thursday, May 31st, at 5 o'clock.
25 That gives you a week to do all this negotiating, okay? And if

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 all else fails, you'll renew the application and I'll have to
2 deal with it.

3 MS. DOUGHERTY: Yes. That's fine for plaintiffs, your
4 Honor.

5 THE COURT: I've given guidance, I think, as to how it
6 could be worked out, but in case it can't. So we'll have a
7 conference May 31st at 5.

8 Now, we may meet anyway to talk about any other
9 discovery issues or class cert. or whatever even if you work
10 out the TRO language. I suppose if your negotiations break
11 down totally, then I need some minimal responsive papers on the 12 proposed TRO, if you can't work it out yourselves.

13 But you really have to have in, the city, that is,
14 which isn't waiting for Mr. Kraft, by the close of business
15 Tuesday. Oh, it gives you Monday and Tuesday to negotiate.
16 All right. That's the best I can come up with. But I'm going
17 to see you next Thursday. Best I can do.

18 I think you can work this out, I truly do. It's 19 always better to do it voluntarily than be ordered by a court.
20 Makes for bad press.

21 So I'll call that a status conference. Okay.

22 Yes, Mr. Meier.

23 MR. MEIER: Your Honor, could I just ask for 6/27 for 24 our time to either answer or move to dismiss?

25 THE COURT: As opposed to -- or did I not set a date?

C5IVSTRA

TRO

1 MR. MEIER: I don't think we got to it.

2 THE COURT: Oh, okay. That sounds reasonable.

3 MR. MEIER: Thank you very much.

4 THE COURT: June 27.

5 Okay. We're all set.

6 Is there anything else you folks need to say today?

7 MS. DOUGHERTY: No, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. This has been helpful.

9 Thank you.

10 MR. MEIER: Thank you, your Honor.

11 MR. ROSINUS: Thank you, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: The city's answer is whatever I said,

13 18th.

14 MR. ROSINUS: June 20th.

15 THE COURT: All right. The 20th. That's what I said.

16 * * *
